

JOINT REPRESENTATION AGREEMENT

This is an agreement among:

1. Michael E. Greenspan, Esq., of Greenspan & Greenspan, P.C., 333 Westchester Avenue, Suite S-3301, White Plains, New York 10601 ("Greenspan");
2. Arnold Becker, Esq., of McKenzie Brackman, P.C., with offices at 444 South Flower Street, Suite 2700, Los Angeles, CA 90071 ("McKenzie");
3. Elwood Blues, 1060 West Addison Street, 60613 ("Blues")

wherein and whereby Michael E. Greenspan and Greenspan & Greenspan, P.C. have been retained by Blues to prosecute a lawsuit seeking damages for personal injuries in the state courts of New York on a one third (33.33%) contingency fee basis arising out of a November 30, 2024 injury that occurred in Dutchess County, New York.

Blues acknowledges that Becker is referring counsel who has been actively working on this matter since retention and agrees to be jointly responsible with Greenspan as co-counsel in the prosecution of the lawsuit. Michael Greenspan shall be primarily responsible for the prosecution of the lawsuit.

The one third attorney's fee will be payable only upon a successful resolution of the lawsuit either by settlement or following a jury verdict, and will be split between the attorneys as follows:

Greenspan & Greenspan, P.C.:	66.66%
McKenzie Brackman, P.C.:	33.34%

Blues recognizes that the division of fees between the two law firms shall not reduce the amount that he will recover at the conclusion of the lawsuit. This compensation division is in proportion to the services performed by each attorney and is made with the knowledge and consent of Blues in accordance with the New York Rules of Professional Conduct.

This agreement may be executed in counterparts, with electronic signatures having the same force and effect as original signatures.

This agreement cannot be modified except in a writing signed by all parties thereto.
